I read book, but it's too Monday.

what was conceptualized
then can work now
adaptations have to be accessible to our times

Solitary circumstance, Lumpens
are the most revolutionary minded.

Your
comrade.

given ones without
all the vocab words.

Not just yours & others!
the key to liberation
is purposefully ignored by systems in place but on individual levels we can center our people
generally swept aside.

Our Rights

Buy less.
trade more.

take care of each other

WELL BEING FOR ALL

for crumbs.

All just scramble

We own nothing.

Wealth is a lie.

Don't idolize the rich or riches.
Our Assumptions

Consistency
Work
Habits
Liberation!

DIY don't die.

We start by making our own food. Then more skills for self-sufficiency. Then combine those resources and build community communally.

A piece of white paper with blue horizontal ruling lines. Handwritten text "GOMMUNI" is written vertically along the right edge. A large, hand-drawn black "X" is drawn over the entire word, crossing it out.

WE ARE ALL ENTITLED

TO LIVE MINUS
SILVIA.

ALL DESERVE TO HAVE THEIR NEEDS MET.

KNOW YOUR WORLDVIEW

IT CANNOT BE MEASURED

expropriation

SEIZE THE MEANS (of production)

END the power dynamics
that exploit workers.

burn the factory!

AgriCom IS JUST NAMING WHAT
OUR ANCESTORS
BUILT WITH US
IN MIND.

Share all,
including
LOVE.

agriculture

Multimarginalized
people produce the most and have access to the least.

destroy the system
dont fuel it.

We won't be able to thrive
unless we take the meaning of our labor.

Pack until nothing
is left

the decentralization
of industry

the earth containing the seeds
enough for all us
to eat.
It stops that.

Be frugal.
Grow your own.

the DIVISION OF LABOUR *

↓
(how bout old isocentric??)

Making what we need locally is more practical than building items to transport.

It's share around dwellings

Landlords
are not ETHICAL.

Who owns the earth?

Consumption
is Production

Work to live
Work to help.
$$ is not needed.
end money.

clothing

the factories
that we sell
our labor to should be open for us
to make all the goods we need.

reverse upcycle.
Rack

the Collectivist
wages system

Personal responsibility

We can get further without restriction.

Ways
in Means

Practice Consent.

We can be free &
make strides to happiness.

People can exist
without governing.
Personal responsibility.

We need for luxury

Trade for access (and to help neighbours),
not for profit.

Objections

No brand loves you.

Luxury is a lie we attach to in order to avoid the facts of capitalism.

Free
Agreement

eliminate money!
bosses & time.
make work fun.

agreeable
work

no job title should
strip our humanity.
consider that workers
are people.
