Fire to the tenements where cats contract viruses.

The drawing shows a multi-story building with several windows, some of which have red X's over them. A cat is at the top right, and a flag on the far right reads "TWELF".
